[XXVth YEAR.] THE [No. 1274.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1770.

BOSTON, January 11.

OUR Friends at New-York write, "that the Merchants there continue firmly to adhere to their Agreement, that the Goods which were imported, and ſtored, belonging to Perſons in that City, did ſtill remain in the public Store, (and not in each Man's own Poſſeſſion) and that there doth not appear in any Perſon in that City, the leaſt Deſire, or Inclination, to have any Part of their ſaid Goods, until the Act impoſing Duties on Paper, Glaſs, Tea, &c. is repealed, and other Goods arrived there afterwards from Great-Britain; and they write further, that if any Perſon, or Perſons, ſhould attempt getting any of the ſaid Goods out of the Store, on any other Conditions, that ſuch Perſon, or Perſons, would incur the Diſpleaſure and Reſentment of the Inhabitants of that City, and be inevitably expoſed to the like Diſgrace as were Mr. Cooley, and the few others, who dared to violate the ſaid Agreement."

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT is reported, that a curſed Deſign is on Foot, to ruin the Credit of the Merchants of this Town, and enſlave North-America ——If ſo,—may the Inhabitants behave like Men, and like Chriſtians.

A FREEHOLDER.

Meſſieurs EDES and GILL,

WHEN we ſee the Enemies of our Country uſing every Art to prevent the Plan of Non-Importation from taking Effect, we are from thence encouraged to hope that it will anſwer the valuable Purpoſe intended; and that our Enemies themſelves think ſo ——They are done laughing at it as the Efforts of an expiring Faction, and treat it, as indeed it is, a Matter of the laſt Importance; knowing that if we hold out, it muſt, and will defeat their curſed Plot to enſlave and ruin us.—They now tell us, that the Troops will be ordered to do that which Art and Chicanery would not effect—But all we have to do is to preſerve, and ſcorn them—We ſeem to be near, very near a Criſis! there undoubtedly is an united Scheme of the whole Cabal, to annoy us; but let the Friends of Liberty, and their Country, take Care, and hold the few (I do not hear of more than 4 or 5) to their CONTRACT; oblige them to fulfil their AGREEMENT; let us hold out only a few Months longer, and we and our Poſterity are ſafe from the Jaws of TYRANNY.

TOM STURDY.

TO THE COMMITTEE OF INSPECTION.

GENTLEMEN,

YOU were appointed, at a late general Meeting of the Merchants, to examine certain Stores, and if any Perſons Goods had been taken away, you were immediately to advertiſe the Names of ſuch Perſons, and appoint a ſuitable Place for a general Meeting—It is reported, that ſome Tea, and other Articles, have been clandeſtinely carried off—If this is the Caſe, that you would, this Day, do your Duty, is the modeſt Requeſt of——

THE PEOPLE.

Jan. 18. The following Hand-Bills were diſperſed through every Part of the Town, on Tueſday laſt.

THE Merchants, and all others, who are any Ways concerned in, or connected with Trade, are deſired to meet at Faneuil-Hall To-morrow, being Wedneſday, the 17th Inſtant, at Ten o'Clock before Noon, to receive the Report of the Committee of Inſpection, relative to the moſt unaccountable and extraordinary Conduct of Three or Four Perſons, ſome of whom have ſold, others removed, and others threaten to ſell their Goods, that have been ſtored, in direct Violation of their ſolemn Engagements to the contrary; and to conſider and determine upon ſome legal and ſpirited Meaſures to prevent the Non-Importation Agreement being rendered abortive, by the Machinations of thoſe few Perſons, who, by behaving in this perfidious Manner, will moſt audaciouſly counteract the whole Continent, in the Meaſures now purſuing for the Preſervation of their Liberties.

As this is a Matter of the greateſt Importance, and the Credit and Reputation of the Trade will greatly depend upon what may be done at this critical Conjuncture, it is earneſtly deſired there may be a very general Attendance.

In Conſequence of the above Notification, a great Number aſſembled Yeſterday; but as the Buſineſs could not be completed, they adjourned to this Day, at Ten o'Clock.

Extracts of Letters from London, by the laſt Packet.

"HOLLIS is as indefatigable as his Soul is boundleſs!"

"An immediate Proſecution, if practicable, is to be commenced againſt Sir JOHN Bernard! The great Serjeant Glynn has given his Opinion, which is tranſmitted, and by this Time, or nearly, I preſume you have it."

NEW-YORK, January 21.

When our Aſſembly granted Two Thouſand Pounds, for the Support of the Troops, it was underſtood that a great Part of the Thouſand Pounds immediately to be given for that Purpoſe, out of the Treaſury, was to be appropriated to diſcharge an Arrearage due to ſundry Perſons, for Articles that they had furniſhed. The Diſcharge of theſe Debts, was uſed as an Argument by the Advocates, who were for granting Billetting Money, why ſuch Grant ſhould be made, urging that a great Part of the Money to be given, was already due to ſome of the Inhabitants. It was therefore very alarming to the Friends of Liberty in this City, to learn, that a Number of Memorials, from Officers and other Perſons, had been ſent to the Lieutenant Governor, and by him to the General Aſſembly, deſiring them to make Proviſion for the Arrearage and Room Rent, &c. and what greatly added to their Anxiety was, that if theſe Demands were paid, as it would be for Debts contracted by and for the Army, it would be a literal Compliance with the Mutiny (otherwiſe called the Billetting) Act; which requires, That the Articles ſhall firſt be furniſhed, and the Debts accrue, and then the Perſon or Perſons, that had paid for Beer, Vinegar, Bedding, &c. ſhall apply to the Aſſembly of the Colony, where ſuch Troops are quartered; who are to make Proviſion for the Payment of ſuch Sums, "in ſuch Manner as the public Charges for the Provinces reſpectively are raiſed." They being entirely at a Loſs to know, what Reſolution the Houſe would come to, on the Subject; and as the Matter was very important, they determined on calling the People together, in order to take their Sentiments on it. Accordingly an Hand-Bill was ſent through the City, deſiring the Inhabitants to meet at Liberty Pole, on Wedneſday, the 17th Inſtant, at 12 o'Clock, where a vaſt Number of them met, of all Ranks, not leſs than 3000. The Liberty Pole being cut down the Night before by the Soldiers, the Gentleman that was appointed to addreſs the People, began, by informing them of the Deſign of its Erection, and recommended to the Inhabitants, in very pathetic Terms, to drop all Party Differences, and unite in ſupporting their common Liberties; and then proceeded to read the following Reſolutions, which were agreed to; and after the other Buſineſs was finiſhed, they were ſigned by moſt of the Inhabitants that then met. He then aſked them, whether they would ſignify their Abhorrence to a Compliance with the Mutiny or Billetting Act? Which they did univerſally, by holding up their Hands, and loud Huzzas. Upon which he propoſed to them, to appoint a Committee that ſhould call the People together, as Occaſion may require, which they accordingly did.

IT is very alarming at this important Criſis, notwithſtanding the humane and benevolent Treatment that the Troops, quartered in this City, have received from the Colony and this City in particular (although we have great Ground to ſuſpect they are not ſtationed here to protect us) that they ſhould be ſo ungrateful and inſulting to the Citizens, as to make ſeveral Attempts to blow up and cut down the Liberty Pole, which has been erected as a Memorial of Freedom. This baſe Conduct is an inconteſtable Proof, that they are not only Enemies to the Peace and good Order of this City; but they manifeſt a Temper, devoted to deſtroy the leaſt Monument, raiſed to ſhew the laudable Spirit of Liberty, that prevails among the Inhabitants; and as the ſame diabolical Spirit will naturally diſpoſe them to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to enſlave us; they muſt be conſidered by all Men, who are actuated by a free Spirit of Liberty, as Enemies, mortal Enemies, to all that is dear and valuable to Engliſhmen. Impreſſed by theſe Conſiderations, We Reſolve, That we will not employ any Soldier, on any Terms whatſoever; but that we will treat them with all that Abhorrence and Contempt which the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution deſerve. And whereas many of them have repeatedly travelled the Streets of this City in the Night with Arms, with which they have attempted to take the Lives of many of the Citizens, and notwithſtanding made their Eſcape, and thereby eluded the Laws, and paſſed with Impunity: THEREFORE, that the Inhabitants may not for the Future be inſulted, and put in Peril of their Lives,

Reſolved, That if any Soldier ſhall be found in the Night having Arms (except Centinels and orderly Sergeants) or out of the Barracks after the Roll is called, ſuch as are found even without Arms, and behave in an inſulting Manner, ſhall be treated as Enemies to the Peace of this City: And we do hereby ſolemnly engage, to and with each other, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſtrictly adhere to the above Reſolutions, and, if poſſible, bring the Tranſgreſſors of them to condign Puniſhment.

WILLIAMSBURG, January 25.

Advices by a Ship arrived at Norfolk, from Liverpool, ſay, that Mr. Wilkes has recovered 4000l. Damages of the Right Honourable the Earl of Halifax.

That the French are much irritated at the Reception given the Ruſſian Fleet by the Engliſh; and that the ſaid Fleet was then actually bombarding a Town, or Fortreſs, at no very conſiderable diſtance from Conſtantinople.

The Captains Walker and Eſten may be daily expected from London.

On Wedneſday Night, Capt. Ferguſon, lately from the Weſt-Indies, arrived in the Packet from Norfolk, in Cuſtody of an Officer, and was committed to the public Jail, being accuſed of the Murder of Three of his Crew, and a Negro Boy of his own, at Sea; for the laſt of which he is to take his Trial here.

Some Time about Chriſtmas laſt, a tragical Affair happened at a Plantation in North Wales, Hanover County, belonging to Bowler Cocke, Eſq; the Particulars of which, according to the Accounts we have received, are as follow, viz. The Negroes belonging to the Plantation having long been treated with too much Lenity and Indulgence, were grown extremely inſolent and unruly; Mr. Cocke therefore had employed a new Steward. The Steward's Deputy (a young Man) had ordered one of the Slaves to make a Fire every Morning very early; the Fellow did not appear 'til Sunriſe; on being examined why he came not ſooner, he gave moſt inſolent and provoking Anſwers, upon which, the young Man going to chaſtiſe him, the Fellow made a Stroke at him with an Axe (or ſome ſuch Weapon) that was in his Hand, but happily miſſed him. The young Man then cloſed with him, and having the Advantage, a Number of the other Slaves came to the Negro's Aſſiſtance, and beat the young Man ſeverely. At laſt the Ringleader (a very ſenſible Fellow) interceded for him, on which they deſiſted. The young Man then made off as faſt as he could, to procure Aſſiſtance to quell them. Whilſt he was gone, they tied up the Steward, and alſo a poor innocent, harmleſs old Man, who overlooked a neighbouring Quarter, and on hearing the Uproar, had paddled acroſs the Creek to know the Cauſe of it. Theſe they whipped 'til they were raw from the Neck to the Waiſtband. In ſome Time the young Man returned, with about Twelve white Men, and Two little Boys carrying each a Gun. They releaſed the Two unhappy Sufferers, and, then proceeded to a Barn, where they found a large Body of the Negroes aſſembled (ſome ſay Forty, ſome Fifty) on whom they tried to prevail by Perſuaſion, but the Slaves, deaf to all they ſaid, ruſhed upon them with a deſperate Fury, armed with Clubs and Staves; one of them knocked down a white Man, and was going to repeat the Blow to finiſh him, which one of the Boys ſeeing, levelled his Piece, diſcharged its Contents into the Fellow's Breaſt, and brought him to the Duſt. Another Fellow having alſo knocked down another of the Whites, was, in the ſame Manner, ſhot by the other Boy. In ſhort, the Battle continued ſometime deſperate, but another of the Negroes having his Head almoſt cut off with a Broad Sword, and Five of them being wounded, the reſt Fled. The Accounts vary; ſome ſay Three were killed upon the Spot, and Five wounded, others that Two were killed, and Five wounded, One of whom died ſoon after. It is ſaid they had threatened to kill the Steward as ſoon as he came to the Plantation. The Ringleader was One of the Slain.

ANNAPOLIS, FEBRUARY 8.

The Committee of Merchants from Anne-Arundel, Prince-George's and Baltimore Counties, are now in Town, but the Reſult of their Conſultations reſpecting the diſpoſal of the Goods brought in the Good Intent, Captain ERRINGTON, has not yet tranſpired, ſo that a Publication thereof muſt be deferred 'til our next.

Lately died at his Seat, on Wye River, in Talbot County, greatly lamented, EDWARD LLOYD, Eſq; formerly one of his Lordſhip's Council of State, and Agent and Receiver General for this Province: He was a tender and affectionate Parent, a humane Maſter, and a polite and agreeable Companion. As he was poſſeſſed of great Wealth, ſo was he remarkable for his Hoſpitality to Strangers, and Benevolence to real Objects of Compaſſion.

 This Gazette finiſhes the Year with all our good old Cuſtomers; and thoſe who have taken them only Part of the Year, will be charged to this Time, in order to bring all our Accounts to a certain Period: We therefore earneſtly requeſt punctual Payments, otherwiſe thoſe who remain in Arrears may depend we ſhall not only diſcontinue ſending the Paper, but alſo uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to bring them to a ſpeedy Settlement, as we can truly ſay, our Payments hitherto have not cleared us our Expence and Trouble; and were it not for the Publication of Advertiſements, we ſhould be great ſufferers by publiſhing a weekly Paper.
